MARKET OVERVIEW

Lewiston is the second largest city in Maine and the most central city in Androscoggin County. The city lies halfway between Augusta, the state's capital, and Portland, the state's most populous city. It is one-half of the Lewiston-Auburn Metropolitan Statistical Area. Auburn is the county seat of Androscoggin County.

Androscoggin County is known for poultry, ranking #1 in the state for the poultry and egg category from 77 producing farms. The county is also top in the state for hog and pig production. Major highways in Lewiston are Interstate 95/Maine Turnpike, US Route 202, Maine State Route 196, and Maine State Route 126. Some of the largest employers are Central Main Medical Center, St. Mary's Regional Medical Center, Bates College, and The Colisee all within one mile of the hotel's site.

OPPORTUNITY LIVES HERE

Lewiston, Maine, is a growing city full of possibility. Vibrant and culturally diverse with a strong sense of community, Lewiston delivers affordable, accessible and abundant opportunity.

Bates College is a private liberal arts college in Lewiston, less than a mile from the hotel site, established in 1855. The Bates campus totals 813 acres, of which the 133-acre main campus is in Lewiston. It maintains 600 acres of nature preserve known as the "Bates-Morse Mountain" near Camp- bell Island and an 80-acre coastal center on Atkins Bay. Bates provides studies in the humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, and engineering and offers joint undergraduate programs. The college has an endowment of $466 million, over 1,800 undergraduate students, 190 academic staff, and the tuition is over $61,000. The college offers 36 departmental and interdis- ciplinary program major and 25 secondary concentrations.

The Central Maine Medical Center serves most of Androscoggin County, including Lewiston, Auburn, and other nearby communities. It is a trauma center and a teaching affiliate of the Boston University School of Medi- cine and the University of New England College of Osteopathic Medicine. The hospital has about 200 beds and approximately 300 physicians. The hospital campus includes several large parking facilities, including a Life- Flight of Maine helipad. The hospital had approximately $1.1 billion in revenue and nearly 40,000 patient days.

St. Mary's Health System, a member of Covenant Health, is located just south of the Bates College campus. A senior care facility operated by Covenant Health is on the hospital campus. The hospital has about 233 beds, nearly 22,000 patient days, and generated revenue of over $670 million. Services offered at St. Mary's include behavioral and mental health services, urgent care, orthopedics, wound care, and specialty services.
